THE WORLD,
DODGES' OHIO AND BUCKEYE
Reapers and Mowers.
A careful examination of these machines will commence any one of their superior merits over all others, in the strength, durability, ease of draft, and reliability for work, on all kinds of ground, and in every variety of grass and grain. Confident of this we invite those in want of a good machine to examine for themselves before purchasing elsewhere.
These machines can be sold as Naked Mowers—REAPERS as Hand Rake, Self-Rake, or Dropper.—Two different sizes: No. 1 Machine, with two cutter Bars and three Knives, cutting five and a half feet of grain and four feet eight inches for grass; No. 2, cutting four feet six inches.
We have that confidence in these machines that we are willing to let those wanting a machine test them with any other they may wish, and keep the one that gives most satisfaction. DODGES' AUTOMAN SELF-RAKE has given such general satisfaction that we consider it the best Self-Rake out, and is attached to do other machine except the Dodge Machine, the Ohio and Buckeye patent.
For the benefit of those wanting machines we would refer them to a few of those to whom we have sold the last season, viz:

GET THE BEST!
NISHWITZ'S IMPROVED MOWER AND REAPER.
The strongest, lightest draft, most compact, simple and perfect Machine ever offered to the public.
The undersigned having taken the Agency for Nishwitz's Celebrated Improved Mower and Reaper, invites the attention of the Farmers of Adams county to it, as the very best machine now in market. Its general construction, embracing every necessary point to constitute a perfect machine, is so simple that the most inexperienced person can readily understand it. It consists of a less number of bolts, pieces and parts than any other machine, and is better adapted to all kinds of Reaping and Mowing. A thorough examination and trial will show this beyond all doubt. Farmers desiring to purchase a first class machine, at low price, will do well to call and examine it. Price $125; Reaper Attachment $35.
ALSO—THE Cucumber Wood Pump,
for Wells, Cisterns, &c.,—the best in market—and the stock being made of cucumber wood the taste of the water is not affected.
☞ Persons desiring to see the Mower and Reaper, or Pump, can do so by calling at Grest Warehouse, Gettysburg; Horah's Tavern, New Oxford, or at the residence of the subscriber in New Salem.

STILL AHEAD!
HOFFHEINS'
REAPER & MOWER,
One of the Greatest Machines of the Age,
IS superior to any other Machine now in use, as it will excel any that will ever be introduced, having been thoroughly tried and given general satisfaction. I would now inform all those who intend purchasing Machines to call and examine for themselves. This Machine is noted particularly to excel all other machines in strength, durability, ease of draft, and reliability of work, in all kinds of grass and grain.—It cuts longer grain admirably, which has a great item in Machines to a farmer. It can be used as a hand Reaper as well as a self-rake. It cuts 4 feet 8 inches in grain; 4 feet 10 inches in grass; has a steel cutter bar, with wrought iron guards; it can be used as a Single Mower as well as a Combined Machine.
A full setof the Machine can be had.
Also, SHIRESMAN'S SELF-DISCHARGING HORSE RAKE, and the great and well-known BRANT RAKE, the best rakes ever introduced. We would also call your attention to the NEW DOUBLE SHOVEL PLOUGH, wrought iron frame, very light and strong, steel shovels, easily adjusted to run shallow or deep, and is neatly and tastefully made.
ALSO, THE KEMLER AND EXCELSIOR FANNING MILL, the old standard so far improved, for many years a great favorite, among the farmers of Pennsylvania. It is large and strong, has two cockle screens, and warranted to work perfectly.
Also all kinds of FARMING IMPLEMENTS always on hand.
Any person wishing to examine these machines can see them at the Bella-field Hotel, or at my residence, 3 miles from Gettysburg, on the Taneytown road and the Baltimore pike.

THE HEROES OF GETTYSBURG.

[The following Dirge for the Braves who fell at the battle of Gettysburg, was written by JAMES A. SCOTT, a practical printer and graduate of the Star and Sentinel office, and was set to music by MAX J. COBLE.—Both were members of Co. C., Cole's Cavalry, and the song was a favorite one in that Company. Mr. COBLE was subsequently taken prisoner by the Rebels and died in the service. It appeared in the "Star" during the War, but we re-publish it as appropriate to the time.]

From the bloody Rappahannock,
Where in myriads lie!
Those who perished for the nation,
That it might not die!
Came our glorious patriot army,
Once again to meet
Traitor hords in shock of battle,
And their hopes defeat.
Chorus.—Up! shake off thy slumber,
Mighty nation, rise!
Pause! the earth is holy,
Where our heroes lie!
Marshal forth thy hosts for battle
Under Freedom's skies;
And the winds are ever whisp'ring
Of their victory!

And they fought as those fight only
Who defend the right;
Whom the cause of truth and justice
Nerves with double might;
'Till the foe, dismayed and beaten,
Were compelled to yield,
With their broken columns flying
From the bloody field.
Chorus.—Up! Shake, &c.

And the spot is now immortal
Where our heroes died,
'Mid the awful roar and carnage
Of the battle's tide.
Their dear memories in the nation
Never shall decay;
It shall bear in fond remembrance
Gettysburg's proud day.
Chorus.—Up! shake, &c.

Blessed heroes! Here forever
Rest ye from your toil.
Now is o'er "life's fitful fever,"
Trouble and turmoil;
In the soil you died defending,
Take your last, long sleep!
While your loved ones o'er ye bending
Bitter tears shall weep.
Chorus.—Up! shake, &c.

O'er the earth your deeds are sounded,
To its farthest part;
And your battle-field is bounded
By a nation's heart!
To the latest generations
Shall your names go down,
Clothed with Glory's bright creations,
Honors and renown.
Chorus.—Up! shake, &c.

Here shall come to offer incense,
Braves of every clime;
And your tomb shall be a Mecca
To the end of time.
Oft in future song and story,
Shall your deeds be told
With new pride until the heavens
Be together rolled;
Chorus.—Up! shake, &c.

Declaration of Independence.

JULY 4, 1776.

When, in the course of human events, it becomes necessary for one people to dissolve the political bands which have connected them with another, and to assume, among the powers of the earth, the separate and equal station to which the laws of nature and of nature's God entitle them, a decent respect to the opinions of mankind requires that they should declare the causes which impel them to the separation.

We hold these truths to be self-evident, that all men are created equal; that they are endowed by their Creator with certain unalienable rights; that among these, are life, liberty, and the pursuit of happiness. That to secure these rights, governments are instituted among men, deriving their just powers from the consent of the governed; that, whenever any form of government becomes destructive of these ends, it is the right of the people to alter or to abolish it, and to institute a new government, laying its foundation on such principles, and organizing its powers in such form, as to them shall seem most likely to effect their safety and happiness. Prudence indeed, will dictate that governments long established, should not be changed for light and transient causes; and, accordingly, all experience hath shown, that mankind are more disposed to suffer, while evils are sufferable, than to right themselves by abolishing the forms to which they are accustomed. But, when a long train of abuses and usurpations, pursuing invariably the same object, evinces a design to reduce them under absolute despotism, it is their right, it is their duty, to throw off such government, and to provide new guards for their future security. Such has been the patient sufferance of these colonies, and such is now the necessity which constrains them to alter their former systems of government. The history of the present king of Great Britain is a history of repeated injuries and usurpations, all having, in direct object, the establishment of an absolute tyranny over these States. To prove this, let facts be submitted to a candid world:

He has refused his assent to laws the most wholesome and necessary for the public good.

He has forbidden his Governors to pass laws of immediate and pressing importance, unless suspended in their operation till his assent should be obtained; and, when so suspended, he has utterly neglected to attend to them.

He has refused to pass other laws for the accommodation of large districts of people, unless those people would relinquish the right of representation in the legislature; a right inestimable to them, and formidable to tyrants only.

He has called together legislative bodies at places unusual, uncomfortable, and distant from the depository of their public records, for the sole purpose of fatiguing them into compliance with his measures.

He has dissolved representative houses repeatedly, for opposing, with manly firmness, his invasions on the rights of the people.

He has refused, for a long time after such dissolutions, to cause others to be elected; whereby the legislative powers, incapable of annihilation, have returned to the people at large for their exercise; the State remaining, in the meantime, exposed to all the danger of invasion from without, and convulsions within.

He has endeavored to prevent the population of these States; for that purpose obstructing the laws for naturalization of foreigners; refusing to pass others to encourage their migrations hither, and raising the conditions of new appropriations of lands.

He has obstructed the administration of justice, by refusing his assent to laws for establishing judiciary powers.

He has made judges dependent on his will alone, for tenure of their offices, and the amount and payment of their salaries.

He has erected a multitude of new offices, and sent hither swarms of officers to harass our people, and eat out their substance.

He has kept among us, in times of peace, standing armies without the consent of our legislatures.

He has affected to render the military independent of, and superior to, the civil power.

He has combined, with others, to subject us to a jurisdiction foreign to our constitution, and unacknowledged by our laws; giving his assent to their acts of pretended legislation:

For quartering large bodies of armed troops among us:

For protecting them, by a mock trial, from punishment, for any murders which they should commit on the inhabitants of these States;

For cutting off our trade with all parts of the world:

For imposing taxes on us without our consent:

For depriving us, in many cases, of the benefits of trial by jury:

For transporting us beyond seas to be tried for pretended offences;

For abolishing the free system of English laws in a neighboring province, establishing therein an arbitary government, and enlarging its boundaries, so as to render it at once an example and fit instrument for introducing the same absolute rule into these colonies:

For taking away our charters, abolishing our most valuable laws, and altering, fundamentally, the powers of our government:

For suspending our own legislatures, and declaring themselves invested with power to legislate for us in all cases whatsoever.

He has abdicated government here, by declaring us out of his protection, and waging war against us.

He has plundered our seas, ravaged our coasts, burnt our towns, and destroyed the lives of our people.

He is, at this time, transporting large armies of foreign mercenaries to complete the works of death, desolation, and tyranny, already

STATE TICKET.

FOR GOVERNOR

GEN. JOHN W. GEARY.

JUDGE OF SUPREME COURT

HON. HENRY W. WILLIAMS.

ON the first page of to-day's issue we give the Declaration of Independence, adopted July 4, 1776. Written by Thomas Jefferson, the reputed father and founder of the Democratic party, there is scracely a sentiment in it in harmony with the present policy of that party. Debauched by the Slave Power, the Democratic party, during the last quarter of a century, has wandered further and further from the essential principles of our Governmental policy, until it came to regard the Declaration of Independence, in its grand assertion of the inalienable rights of man, as nothing more than a string of glittering generalities. Crowning its infidelity to principle with treason to the Government, the Democratic party to-days stands branded with the signet of popular odium, and will continue to be scouted so long as it clings to the policy of ignoring the principles enunciated by the founders of the Republic. The nation has righted itself during the last few years, and to-day demands that the Government be administered in accord with the fundamental principles which gave it birth, and in full reognition of the Brotherhood of Man.

SCHUYLER COLFAX.

MR. LINCOLN once remarked that SCHUYLER COLFAX would one day be President or the United States. If the prediction was not that of a prophet, the opinions seems to gain confirmation every day. Ever since Mr. COLFAX entered public life his course has been steadily onward and upward. He has never taken a step backward and has never halted in the path of duty, or turned from his course through fear.—Personally one of the most genial companions and a conscientious gentleman, politically he impresses all with the sincerity of his motives, and he is always respected in whatever contests he may be engaged. To the young men of the country he is an excellent example. He is now visiting in various parts of the country, and wherever he goes his reception is so generally cordial and enthusiastic that we cannot fail to observe his genuine popularity. With no set receptions his progress has been a triumph everywhere from Washington throughout New Jersey, New York and New England. If Mr. COLFAX desired, he could not better electioneer for further honors than by being and acting simply himself.

MR. BORIE, Secretary of the Navy, on Friday last tendered his resignation, which was accepted, the President promptly appointing Hon. GEORGE M. ROBESON, of New Jersey, as his successor. Mr. Borie resigned on account of ill-health. The new Secretary lives in New Jersey, and has always lived in that State. He is a graduate of Princeton College, and has always followed the legal profession. He resigns the position of Attorney General of the State of New Jersey, to which he was appointed by the present Governor, in order to assume his new position.—During the war he was Adjutant General of the State of New Jersey, which position he filled with honor and ability.

THE Kentucky Democratic Congressmen, Winchester, of the Fifth, and Golladay, of the Fourth Districts, have announced themselves for repudiation of the national debt. The Lexington Statesman hears that other Congressmen also favor that policy, and predicts that the Democracy of the State will make it a plank in the platform.

MCCREERY, Democratic U. S. Senator from Kentucky, makes no concealment of his opinions in favor of repudiation. He expressed them in a speech last winter, in the Senate. The Southern Democracy, at least, are preparing to become repudiators, whatever may be said of the Northern wing of party. But neither can be trusted.

THE fact that the Fourteenth Amendment to the Constitution will have a serious effect upon the representation of some of the Northern States, under the apportionment of the next census, seems to have been overlooked until recently, when it was brought to the attention of the Census Committee. In case the Fifteenth Amendment is not ratified before the census is taken, and the appointment for the next ten years made, the colored people in the Northern States will not be included, as heretofore, in the basis of representation, because they are not allowed to vote. This, it is estimated, will deprive the larger States of from one to two members of Congress each.

THE Republicans of Somerset county have nominated the following Ticket:—Senator, Alexander Stutzman; Assembly, Capt. F. B. Long; Prothonotary, Dennis Meyers; Register and Recorder, Daniel J. Horner; County Treasurer, Wm. B. Coffroth; Sheriff, Josiah Shafer; County Commissioner, Jonathan Dumbauld; Director of the Poor, Andrew Way; Auditor, Henry J. Fox.

THE "Red Stockings," a Base Ball Club from Cincinnati, have been producing quite a sensation among the Base Ball men. They are on a trip to the Eastern States, and have thus far defeated every club they have encountered. Last week they defeated the famous Atlantics, of Brooklyn, and Athletics, of Philadelphia—hitherto regarded as the "champion" clubs of the country.

PRESIDENT GRANT has decided that the restriction preventing army officers from holding civil office does not apply to officers on the retired list. This decision enables General Sickles to accept the Spanish Mission. He, of course, will relinquish his army pay while occupying his diplomate position. He will leave New York for Madrid about July 15th.

MOSEBY, the notorious Virginia guerrilla, advises all his fellow-democrats to register, and combine to resuscitate their party in the "Old Dominion."—But Emancipation has made of the "Old" a "New" Dominion; and the views of the Secession Democracy are not as popular as they were before the people were led by them into Rebellion.

THE Republicans of Maine have nominated GOV. CHAMBERLAIN for re-election.

OUR STATE CONVENTION, AND TICKET.

The Republican State Convention had a harmonious session on Wednesday last in Philadelphia, and has given us a most acceptable ticket—GEARY for Governor, and WILLIAMS for Judge of the Supreme Court. Gov. GEARY was present, and accepted the nomination in a few remarks which are conceived in excellent taste, and have auspiciously opened the campaign.

The Governor has, for three years, discharged the duties of his high office with unbending integrity, conscientiousness, and ability. No suspicion of infidelity rests upon him; no taint of wrong is attached to him. On the other hand, it is safe to say that no one has ever met the responsibilities of the place with a more earnest desire to discharge them for the public good. During his term, the Public Debt has been diminished, the public credit preserved, and the burthen of taxation diminished. He has carefully guarded the interests of the people, and watchfully interposed his influence against pernicious legislation. His official record is a bright one—of which his friends may well be proud, and with which his party will confidently go to the people.

His re-election is not only important in a public sense; but is of the first importance in a political sense. The next Executive term will cover the period for both the Congressional and Legislative apportionments. Should the Executive power be in Democratic hands, we may look for systematic opposition to all legislation which will not tend to strengthen the Democratic organization. On the other hand, should Gov. GEARY possess it, the legislature will find in him an ally in enacting the just legislation which will enable the majority in Pennsylvania to be felt beneficently upon public affairs.

Judge WILLIAMS was swindled out of his election two years ago, by Democratic frauds in Philadelphia. The place to which he is, of right, entitled, is now held by the usurper SHARSWOOD, who uses his powers to thwart the execution of all laws designed to check the vile practices to which he owes his seat. He and the Chief Justice, THOMPSON, see everything through partizan spectacles, and, unfortunately for the State and disgracefully for themselves, are always conspicuous in their subserviency to the worst men and politics of their party. To make them powerless, it is necessary to put three fearless men upon the Bench with them. We already have two—READ and AGNEW. Judge WILLIAMS's accession will save the Commonwealth from the danger which threatens her—of having our Judiciary, like that of New York City, moulded and controlled by the worst elements of our population.

Judge WILLIAMS is a gentleman of thorough legal training, of very superior abilities, and of the most exalted character. He is eminently worihy of the hearty support he will receive.

Our candidates are unexceptionable; our principles blaze with light; our cause must be victorious.

In October, we will capture the Copperheads, and seal the devotion of our State to the ever-living principles of true Republicanism.

HARRY HAUCK, of Lebanon, has been appointed Deputy State School Superintendent, in place of E. R. Coburn, deceased. Mr. Hauck has long been connected with the School Department as a clerk, and was Deputy under Superintendent Hickcock. The State Convention of County School Superintendents will be held in Harrisburg, on the 20th of July.

THE Republicans of Ohio have nominated Gov. Hays for re-election. The balance of the State ticket is: Lieut. Governor, J. C. Lee; Treasurer, S. S. Warner; Supreme Judge, Luther Day; Attorney General, Col. F. B. Pond.

GRANT is unearthing the frauds of JOHNSON'S officials, and recovering large sums of money. This makes the Copperhead papers howl with rage.

SPAIN.—The Spanish people have passed successfully through the second stage of their revolution. The first was the overthrow of Isabella, the second has been the reorganization of the country under the new Constitution. Both those steps have been accomplished with a degree of order and quietness quite marked in comparison with the ordinary routine of revolutions. The overthrow of Isabella was an almost bloodless achievement, and though there have since been some serious out breaks in different parts of the Kingdom, yet the country as a whole has preserved to a remarkable degree its equilibrium. The people now have a Constitution, but still lack a King, a want that is rather sentimental than real. It does not go all the lengths of progress that we here might have desired, but it is in its republican and liberal features a vast stride in advance of any of the many Constitutions which have been tried and discarded. It creates a monarchy it is true, but a monarchy so limited and so surrounded by republican institutions that it only needs a liberal-minded administration to make it in fact, as it is in spirit, republican. The question now is what will Spain do with her new Constitution? For the present she is a monarchy without a monarchy, and with no present prospect of that want becoming supplied. For six months her throne has gone a begging.—Those who want it, Spain will not accept, and the only one on whom there was any unanimity of desire to bestow it prefers the quiet of a life devoted to rural pursuits and entomological researches. In this state of suspense it is an added sign of good that no wise a choice as that of Marshall Serrano has been made for Regent. Spain has been practically a Republic since September last, and under the administration of Serrano it will practically remain a Republic.

A TOUGH MEAL.—A citizen of Chicago used to go home late slightly inebriated, and take a lunch usually set out for him by his considerate wife. One night, beside the usual dish of cabbage and pork, she set a wash-bowl filled with caps and starch. The lamp had long been extinguished when the staggering sot returned home, and by mistake, when proceeding to satisfy his hunger, he stuck his fork into the wrong dish. He worked away at the mouthful of caps very patiently for some time, but, finally, being unable to masticate them, he said to his wife, "Old woman, where did you get your cabbage? They are so darned stringy that I can't chew them." "My gracious!" she replied, "if the stupid feller ain't eating up all my caps that I put starch in over night!"

VIRGINIA ELECTIONS.—All the accounts received in Washington from Virginia say that the excitement throughout the State over the approaching election is becoming very intense. The canvass is carried on with a good deal of bitterness on both sides. The leading Republicans from that State now here think that Wells, the Republican candidate for Governor, will be elected by from fifteen to twenty thousand majority, although many allow that these figures are too low. It is also understood that the distressing clause will be stricken out of the Constitution. But few Republicans are supporting it.

Republican State Convention.

GOV. GEARY RE-NOMINATED ON FIRST BALLOT.

HON. HENRY W. WILLIAMS, FOR SUPREME JUDGE.

The Republican State Convention met in Philadelphia on Wednesday of last week, and was called to order by Mr. GROW, Chairman of the State Committee, who made a brief address counselling harmony, and urging the importance of the contest this fall.—Hon. HENRY SOUTHER, of Elk county, was unanimously elected temporary chairman, and acknowledged the compliment in a neat speech. A committee on permanent organization was appointed, who reported the name of Hon. JAMES L. GRAHAM, of Allegheny county, for President, with a long list of Vice Presidents and Secretaries. WM. KING, Esq., of this county, was one of the Vice Presidents, and I. N. DURBORAW, Esq., one of the Secretaries.

Mr. GRAHAM, on taking the chair, made an eloquent speech, which was warmly applauded. The following nominations for Governor were made: Hon. John W. Geary, Gen. Horace W. Porter, Hon. George V. Lawrence, Gen. Harry White, Gen. William Lilley, Gen. George G. Meade, Hon. Thomas M. Marshall. The names of of Messrs. Lawrence, White and Marshall were withdrawn, and the Convention proceeded to ballot with the following result:

General John W. Geary	122 votes.
General Horace M. Porter	1 "
General William Lilley	6 "
General George G. Meade	4 "

General JOHN W. GEARY having received a majority of all the votes cast was declared the nominee of the convention for Governor of the State. The announcement of the result created a furor of enthusiasm among the immense assemblage outside the railings of the convention. Cheer after cheer rent the air, and for sometime the excitement and noise thus occasioned prevented the transaction of further business by the body.

A Committee was appointed to inform Gov. GEARY of his nomination, who returned with the Governor in person. As he entered the hall, he was greeted with enthusiastic cheers, at the close of which Governor GEARY came forward and addressed the Convention as follows:

MR. PRESIDENT AND GENTLEMEN OF THE CONVENTION: Your committee has informed me that I have been named me as a candidate for Governor of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania, and conferred upon me the distinguished honor of being the standard-bearer of the Republican party for the approaching political contest. [Cheers.]

For this manifestation of continued confidence and appreciation I feel that any language I am competent to command is entirely too poor to express in appropriate terms the emotions of my heart, and no other resource is left me than frankly to return to you, and through you to my fellow-citizens whom you represent, my sincere thanks and gratitude.

When I contemplate the labor, anxiety of mind, and responsibility that must necessarily be devolved up me during the canvass for an election of such magnitude, a consciousness of the difficulties surrounding the task causes me almost instinctively to shrink from the undertaking. But I confidently look to a higher Power, and to my fellow-citizens, for that zeal, support and encouragement which may enable me to steer the Republican ship with safety through the breakers of the coming conflict. Satisfied that my trust is not misplaced, I unhesitatingly accept the distinguished honor that has been conferred upon me by this honorable convention. [Cheers.]

Three years ago a similar honor was conferred upon me at a period when our nation was just emerging from a most terrible war; and with the dust of battle scarcely brushed from my own garments, and politically inexperienced as I was, I ardently entered upon the contest which resulted so gloriously for the Republican cause in 1866. I did not accept the nomination then in the belief that in my own person I possessed any intrinsic merit, or had rendered any services to my country which entitled me individually to receive it; but I accepted it as a compliment to my native county, and as a matter due to the three hundred and sixty-three thousand soldiers of Pennsylvania who had rendered noble services in the field, the aggregate value of which can never be estimated, and to whom we are indebted for a home and a country. On their behalf I then warmly thanked the convention, and I here desire to reiterate those thanks again to you. And now, after having served the greater portion of the term for which I was elected, and after every official act of mine has been fully criticised and discussed by the people and the press; when you, the chosen representatives of the people from every part of the Commonwealth, appear at the bar of public opinion and testify in my behalf, and confer upon me the plaudit, "Well done, good and faithful servant," I certainly need no better, no higher, no stronger verdict. [Verdict.]

In bearing the banner you have this day confided to me, I pledge you that it shall be carried at the head of the Republican column, its movements shall always be directed to the sound of the heaviest firing; and, when the conflict is over, I confidently predict the banner will be placed, as it was in 1866, in triumph upon the dome of the Capitol, without spot or blemish on its stripes, and its stars undimmed, as well as the glory and its effulgence beamed on the country, and Pennsylvania will still be as true as when she signed withe sacred covenant that binds the States together in the bonds of an everlasting union.

Should the people again place me in the executive chair, I will continue to use my best exertions to promote everywhere the peace, honor, and welfare of my native State, and will endeavor to secure by wise and good government can bestow upon a free people. And it shall be my pleasure to aid the Chief Magistrate of the nation in his laudable efforts to "let us have peace," and if necessity should require, I will aid him to preserve the national rights and national honor at all hazards and every sacrifice. It shall be my special duty to extend all the influence I may possess to aid in procuring adequate protection for every branch of our domestic and foreign productions, and to see that exact justice shall be done to the mechanic and the laborer, as well as to the capitalist, and, as far as possible, to make them feel that their true interests are one and inseparable. [Applause.]

As a candidate it shall be my constant aim to extend, strengthen, and confirm the unity and good feeling of the Republican party, and in this work I sincerely invoke the aid of every true Republican. For my part, I will not recognize divisions or factions in the party, but will from this time forth look upon it only as united, harmonious, patriotic, and enthusiastic in the development and determination of the great principles and measures of progress for which it was organized. I have no enemies in whose punishment I can take delight, and whatever has been said or done in the excitement of the movements preliminary to this convention that was wrong and painful to me is frankly forgiven, as far as possible obliterated from my memory.

The Republican party has a proud record in the past, and a glorious future before it. It has accomplished more good in a shorter space of time than any other organization that ever existed, and we have reason to rejoice that it still lives, and moves, and has a being. Among its achievements is the abolishment of slavery. That scandal to humanity and opprobrium of the nation lies dead amid its worshippers. The rights and privileges of all men are secured in their lives, their homes, their labor and their persons. All men are protected because they are men, without reference to race or color. In the language of Abraham Lincoln, it "cares for him who has borne the battle, and for his widow and his orphan, and seeks to achieve and cherish a lasting peace among ourselves and with all nations."—Each individual is animated with love for the Union and for universal liberty. Never was a Republican found guilty of firing into the flag of his country and shooting down its brave defenders. The party has sacredly decreed the payment of the entire debt incurred to save the life of the nation. In a word, it has defeated the nation's enemies, saved the Union, caused it to be more highly respected and admired throughout the civilized world than ever before.

Friends of the four hundred thousand heroes who died for the country, with such a glorious record how can you surrender your government into the hands of those who would have destroyed it within the last six years if they could? The Union is the ark of safety. The Republican party has proven itself the true friend of the Union. Sustain the Republican party by victory, and you will thereby sustain the Union. And such are the unrepentant Rebels, and their sympathizers ever to touch the hallowed altar of the United States or National Government. Let these be "highly rewarded" to receive the former in office, "for their great obedience;" and to protect, defend and perpetuate the latter, let us here pledge anew "our lives, our fortunes and our sacred honor."

The remarks of Gov. GEARY were greeted with frequent applause, and the Convention proceeded to nominate a candidate for Judge of the Supreme Court. On motion of Mr. WILLIAMS, of Pittsburg, the Hon. HENRY W. WILLIAMS, of Allegheny county, was, by acclamation, declared to be the nominee.

The proceedings of the Convention were unusually harmonious, and at an early hour, having gone through all usual business, it adjourned. The Chairman was authorized to appoint the usual State Committee. We annex the Resolutions adopted by the Convention:

Resolved, That we rejoice in the glorious national victory of 1868, which is bringing peace, happiness, and prosperity to us as a nation.

Resolved, That we wholly approve of the principles and policy of the Administration of General Grant, and we heartily endorse every sentiment contained in his inaugural address, and especially do hereby ratify and approve the late amendment proposed by Congress to the Constitution of the United States, and known as the fifteenth amendment.

Resolved, That we have confidence that the General Administration will wisely and firmly protect the interests and dignity of the nation in respect to our just claims against Great Britian, and that we endorse the action of the Senate in rejecting the Johnson-Clarendon treaty, known as the Alabama claims.

Resolved, That we heartily sympathize with the struggling peoples of all nations in their efforts to attain universal freedom and the invaluable rights of man.

Resolved, That we confidently endorse the Administration of General John W. Geary as wise, economical and honest, and that it deserves, as it has received, the approval of the people of Pennsylvania, and we especially commend his uniform efforts to restrain the evils of special legislation.

Resolved, That in Hon. Henry W. Williams, our candidate for the Supreme Court, we present a learned, pure, and patriotic jurist, who will adorn the high position to which we propose to elect him.

Resolved, That we reiterate and affirm our adherence to the doctrine of protection, as proclaimed in the ninth resolution of the platform adopted at the State Convention of March 7, 1866.

Resolved, That we endorse the ticket this day nominated, and pledge to it our hearty and cordial support.

On Wednesday night a grand Ratification Meeting was held in Concert Hall, presided over by GEORGE H. STEWART, Esq., of Philadelphia. The meeting was addressed by Mr. Stewart, Ex-Gov. Pollock, Hon. Wayne McVeigh, Hon. John Cessna, Col. Jordan, and others.

AGRICULTURAL REPORTS.

The Agricultural Department has issued its report for the months of May and June. The returns show a high average condition of wheat, and indicate a good prospect of an abundant crop if no casulties occur before or after the harvest.

Rye, barley and other grains are generally in fine condition. The largest increase is in barley, and in the States west of the Mississippi, particularly in California, while a slight enlargement of area is reported in the Ohio Valley, N. Y. and elsewhere. Oats in the Ohio Valley have scarcely been sown to the usual extent, but a greater area has been put in elsewhere in the West, as in Michigan, Wisconsin, Iowa, Missouri and Kansas. The crop is not quite in an average condition in some parts of New England and in parts of Ohio, Indiana, Illinois and Minnesota, while in more Southern States the low temperature of the spring months has effected a decided improvement in a crop that generally suffers in those latitudes by sudden and extreme elevation of temperature at the season of heading. Corn planting has been everywhere retarded either by excessive rain or cold, and partial replanting has been an inevitable necessity at some points to the extent of one-fourth the area, in some cases one-third or one-half, and in Wood county, Ohio, two-thirds of the acreage. The latest returns represent the crop as backward, and in some instances feeble, but generally green and vigorous, with promise, a favorable season intervening, of a fair yield.

Cotton.—The high prices of 1868 have stimulated the business of cotton growing. New operators have flocked into it, old plantations have enlarged their boundaries, and the indications are that prices will decline. Complaints of late planting, bad stands, cold and unfavorable weather, are more or less general throughout the Cotton States. From the Atlantic States, from North Carolina to Florida, discouraging accounts are general. The plant is yellow and sickly; there is a poor stand. Replanting has been done, or corn put instead. The latest reports are more favorable.

Other Crops.—Sorghum will be cultivated more extensively than for many years, for syrup mainly, but in some places with the intention of attempting sugar making.

Fruits.—The yield of small fruits is unusually abundant, with a fine promise for those coming in later in the season. Peaches will be abundant in New Jersey and Delaware, will be a fair crop in the West, and a short supply only in some localities in the Southern States where untimeiy frosts prevailed.

CLAIMS FOR PENSIONS.—Claims for pensions have been from time to time rejected by the Commissioner on insufficient evidence, until the number has reached a very large figure. Dr. Van Aernam, the present Commissioner, deeming that many of them were improperly disallowed, has organized an Examining Board to review this class of claims, in order to do justice where it is possible any errors have been committed. The claimants will be again called upon to furnish the evidence which may be found essential upon a re-examination. It is thought that this course will result in granting many pensions to invalids, and to widows and orphans, and other heirs who were disallowed through inadvertence, or under enactments subsequently annulled.

THE New York correspondent of the Troy Times writes as follows: "The largest owner of personal property in this city, and in the United States, is Commodore Vanderbilt, who is said to hold twenty millions. The Astors, whose chief wealth is in land, have about five millions in personal estate. Moses Taylor has about four millions, of which his coal stocks, in connection with those of his son-in-law, reach one million and a half. George Law has about two millions, while out of the estate of the late John J. Phelps, amounting in all to eight millions, about two-thirds are in personal property.

THE body of a German who died at the age of sixty-five years, and was buried on the 28th of November, 1861, in Baltimore Cemetery, was on Saturday disinterred for the purpose of removal, and was found completely petrified. The face alone showed signs of decay; the body and limbs were solid and stone-like, hard and chalky to the touch. In the process of removal it required the utmost strength of four men to lift the remains from the grave, and this, after an interment of eight years.

A PARSON priest at Quebec on Friday caused the arrest of two French gentlemen, for selling copies of the New Testament in that city. One was found guilty, and sentenced to pay a fine of six dollars and costs, but it was ultimately remitted. The affair has caused a flurry.

ANDREW JOHNSON'S spawn of revenue assessors has been cut down nearly one-fifth, yet more internal revenue is collected today than at any time during his Administration. The moral is plain.

A DIAMOND ring which had been lost since the fall of 1823, was found in a well in Oswego a few days ago. The well was being cleaned, a process which it had undergone several times since the loss of the ring. Forty-six years this jewel lay at the bottom of the well, and it came out as bright and pure as the day it sunk.

THE list of Presidential appointments for cadets at large to the West Point Academy is another gratifying illustration of the genuine regard which the Administration displays toward the soldiers in the war.—Nearly every one of these cadets is either the son of a gallant officer, or the orphan child of a father fallen in the service.

THE cholera has broken out with great virulence in Gambia, Africa, defying the most vigorous efforts of the authorities to restrain it. The disease seems to be of the most violent character; three or four hours are reported to be the longest attack, while many drop dead after as many minutes.

ONE day last week a young woman living near Norwalk, Ct., in a passion, threw a flatiron at her brother, nearly breaking his back. THE Government have got hold of the leaders of an extensive gang of counterfeiters, whose ramifications extended through New York, Pennsylvania, Maryland and, Indiana. We suppose they will be disposed of as soon as possible. It is something to know that they have a chance of serving out their term after conviction. There is no danger of President Grant letting them loose speedily to resume operations, as President Johnson used to do.

The Association declined to express an opinion because the statement submitted to it was deemed too vague.—On Saturday night last a stable was destroyed by fire in Mechanicsburg, in the rear of the Washington House. The incendiaries were seen to leave the stable by parties passing at the time, who succeeded in putting it out, but had not left the stable fifteen minutes before it was again fired, and completely destroyed.

A YOUNG LADY BURNED TO DEATH.—A young lady named Laura Carswell, a teacher in one of our public schools, who resided with her father, was fatally burned at Wilmington, Del., on the 16th ult. She was retiring about half-past ten o'clock, and was ready to get into bed, when she turned to a coal oil lamp, it is supposed, and attempted to extinguish the light by blowing down the chimney. The flame was thus blown down into the oil and the lamp exploded, throwing the blazing oil all over Miss Carswell's night dress and the clothing she had just taken off, lying near. Enveloped in flames she ran screaming into the entry communicating with her room, where her father immediately afterwards found her. He made every effort to extinguish the flames, and a brother of the young lady tore up a piece of stair carpet and threw it over her head. This saved her head from burning, but her whole person, from her neck down, was horribly burned before the flames could be extinguished. By this time Miss Carswell's room was on fire, and it required the efforts of the family to save the house from destruction. Mr. Carswell, in his attempt to save his daughter, had his hands terribly burnded, all the finger nails being burned off one hand, and the other so much injured that it will be a long time before he can use it, if, indeed, he ever can. Medical aid was immediately summoned to dress the wounds and alleviate the sufferings of the poor girl: but the physicians pronounced her case a hopeless one from the first. She lingered until about ten o'clock next morning, when death put an end to her sufferings. She was a young lady but eighteen or nineteen years old in the full bloom of early womanhood, attractive in person as well as in character, and leaves a large circle of friends to mourn her sad and sudden death.

A LUXURIOUS TRIP ACROSS THE CONTINENT.—This morning a special train of two cars arrived at the Northwestern depot, from Sacramento, California, bringing the wife of ex-Governor Leland Stanford, President of the Central Pacific, late Governor of California. Mrs. S. was attended by three servants, and accompanied by a small party of friends. The whole excursion was in charge of Mr. Dennison, one of the oldest conductors of the road.

Both cars were built at the yards in Sacramento. One is a sleeping and eating car, divided into sitting room, bed rooms, and a small kitchen. In the sitting room are divans at either end, furnished with double mattresses, which can be converted readily into most comfortable beds at short notice. A stove and mirror, a rich, soft, figured carpet, and bracket lamps, complete the furniture of the room. The bed rooms are more spacious than could be looked for on wheels, and each has a wide and comfortable couch. Marble wash-bowls and water tanks holding several days' supplies are in each. The rooms are divided by curtains, which can be drawn back and canceled in little closet like recesses, closed by a strip of wood, when it is desi red to make one room.

Beyond these rooms is a dining room, with tables and seats, which, like those in the sitting room, can be made into beds.—One of them is a "linen locker." At the further end, beyond the kitchen, is the ladies' water clost. The kitchen is rather snug, the car not being intended for a large party. The other car is for baggage and provisions, and is fitted also with bunks for the use of the help. Ice boxes and metallic water tanks are placed therein, and at one end are chicken coops—which came in rather empty, but with signs of recent occupancy. Meat closets and pantries are at either side.

The party started with cauliflowers, peas, beans, luscious California plums, peaches, and other fruit and vegetables, which for six weeks the Californians have been enjoying.—Chicago Post 21st.

JUDGE BLACK'S CONDITION.—The Hon. Jeremiah S. Black is still at the St. Joseph's Infirmary, Louisville, Ky. Although four weeks have elapsed since the serious accident on the Louisville and Nashville railroad, by which his arm was badly broken, he had not until Monday been able to be assisted from his bed. He convalesces slowly, but the Louisville Express says recover the use of his arm. His son, Chauncey F. Black, Esq., of York, Pa., is still in attendance on his father.

HAGAN'S MAGNOLIA BALM.—This article is the True Secret of Beauty. It is what fashionable Ladies, Actresses, and Opera Singers use to produce that cultivated, distingue appearance so much admired in the Circles of Fashion.

It removes all unsightly Blotches, Redness, Freckles, Tan, Sunburn and Effects of Spring Winds, and gives to the Complexion a Blooming Purity of transparent delicacy and power. No lady who values a Complexion can do without the Magnolia Balm. 75 cents will buy it of any of our respectable dealers.

TO THE NORTH POLE BY BALLOON.—A new and daring experiment, is noted by the Pall Mall Gazette: "The invariable failure which has hitherto attended nautical expeditions to the Arctic regions has induced two Frenchmen, Messieurs Tissandier and de Fouvielle, to undertake the enterprise of reaching the north pole in a balloon. The machine in which the bold adventurers are about to embark on their perilous journey, is now being completed in the Champ de Mars, which the government have placed at their disposal for the purpose. The monster balloon will contain over 10,000 cubic metres of gas, and is composed entirely of a cloth manufactured from caoutchouc, which will allow of great expansion in the rarefied strata of the atmosphere. The seams uniting the different pieces form a total length of three English miles. The car, a marvel, it is said, of strength and lightness, is constructed to carry ten passengers, 4,000 pounds of ballast, and provisions for a month.

BRANDRETH'S PILLS.

They remove all bad accumulations from the bowels and purify and invigorate the system. All whose health is not perfect owe it to themselves to take a few doses of Brandreth's Pills, because the seeds of decay are constantly eradicated by their use, and the principle of life confirmed, thus giving a vigor of body and mind to a period when we have been used to see the faltering step and the enfeebled intellect.

General Paez, the distinguished liberator of Venezuela, says he has used them as his only medicine for thirty years, with the most satisfactory results.

For Costiveness, Dyspepsia, and as a Family Medicine they are unrivalled.

Daniel I. Tenney, Esq., Astor House, New York, cured by Brandreth's Pills of Dyspepsia and Costiveness, when all other means need had failed.

A gentleman, whose father died of consumption at 36 years, was also attacked, when about 21, by the disease. He had cough, night sweats, and general debility. Doctors recommended cod liver oil, but he wasted away. At last he determined to use Brandreth's Pills. In two months they made him a sound man. [July 2—1m

GRANT AND PROSPERITY.

Business revives under the new regime. Other than general cause have, however, given a tremendous impetus to the sale of

CRISTADORO'S EXCELSIOR HAIR DYE.

The chemists have come out in two leading scientific journals against the lead and sulphur poisons for the head (for that is their proper designation), with which the country is infested, while Dr. Chilton, the analytical chemist in America, announces to the world that

CRISTADORO'S DYE IS UTTERLY POISONLESS, and that he knows it to be so, because he has analyzed it. CRISTADORO'S HAIR PRESERVATIVE, as a Dressing, acts like a charm on the Hair after Dyeing. Try it. [July 2—1m

The Star and Sentinel.

Gettysburg, Tuesday, June 29, 1869.

IN ADVANCE.—To enable our employees to participate in the dedication ceremonies, we issue the STAR AND SENTINEL this week several days in advance.

DIVIDEND.—The Gettysburg Gas Company has declared a dividend of five per cent. for the last six months.

WITHDRAWN.—Dr. C. W. Benson has withdrawn from the "Littlestown Press," and the paper will hereafter be published by Mr. J. H. Christ.

☞The Commencement exercises of Dickinson College took place at Carlisle last week. There were 21 graduates, among them W. Scott Morrison, of Bendersville.

FORGE.—Messrs. BAKER, FEISTEL and TOLBERT have sold their interest in the Gettysburg Forge to Mr. STEWART HOFFMAN, of this place. Mr. H. is a young man of energy and will no doubt push the enterprise.

INSTALLATION.—The Carlisle Presbytery, which met at Mechanicsburg last week, adjourned to meet in Gettysburg, on Thursday the 8th of July, for the purpose of ordaining and installing Rev. Mr. Hillis, pastor of the Presbyterian church in this place.

REAL ESTATE SALES.—John Hartman has purchased Jacob Brinkerhoff's farm, in Cumberland township, about 125 acres, with improvements—giving him a tract of 35 acres, in Franklin township, and $3,000 in money, therefor.

Hon. Edward McPherson has purchased from W. W. Young the "Burns" property on Chambersburg street, for $800 cash.

FIRE.—The former gate-house on the Gettysburg Turnpike, one-quarter of a mile east of Graffenburg Springs, owned and occupied by Henry Everly, was entirely destroyed by fire week before last. Nothing was saved but the clothing worn by the family. Seventy-five dollars in greenbacks were also burned. Mr. Everly is a man advanced in years, and had no insurance, his former insurance in the Mummasburg Company having recently expired, and had not been renewed.

A SWINDLER.—The Hanover Spectator says an individual has been trying to "come it" over the people in the neighborhood of Hanover and McSherrystown, by representing himself as an Agent of a Boston Dollar Sales House, and getting up clubs at $1 each, for goods to be forwarded by express. He suddenly left for parts unknown, probable to operate in other sections. He is about 5 feet 4 inches high, florid complexion, red hair, beard and moustache.

TEMPERANCE.—A Temperance meeting was held in the United Brethren Church, Littlestown, on the evening of the 24th ult., Rev. M. J. Alleman presiding and J. H. Christ acting as Secretary. Addresses were made by Rev. P. P. Lane, and Messrs J. H. Christ and S. H. Young, and resolutions adopted denouncing intemperance, urging ministers of the Gospel to preach on the subject, and recommending that the pledge be circulated in Sabbath schools. Another meeting was to be held on Monday evening last.

A TRAVELELING IMPOSTER.—The Harri-burg Patriot says an unprincipled scoundrel, giving his name as Prof. de Gross, is practicing a swindling game upon the Catholic clergy in the rural villages. The swindle consists in forwarding a small box, neatly done up, to the address of the priest, marked C. O. D. Not suspecting dishonesty the charges are paid, the box opened, and found to contain a dime picture of the Pope. A number of priests have already been victimized by this impostor. Those who have escaped should keep a strict watch.

ARREST.—On the night of the 20th ult., several suits of clothing, worth about $40, were stolen from the dwelling of Mrs. Brough, on the turnpike, this side of New Oxford. Suspicion attached to a German, named John Myers, in the employ of Mrs. B. and who was missing next morning. Myers was pursued and arrested near Manchester, Md. He confessed to taking the clothing and said he had sold part of them to a man in Hanover. A search warrant being sued out, the goods were found in the posession of a German, named Keefer, to whom Myers had sold them. Myers has been committed for trial

LAY REPRESENTATION.—The Methodist Episcopal Churches, connected with Gettysburg circuit, have voted on the question of Lay Representation, with the following result:

	For.	Against.
Gettysburg,	11	22
Rock Creek,	3	7
Fairfield,	3	7
Chamblin's,	10	1

The Littlestown and Two Taverns Churches vote this week. As will be seen, the vote, composed with the membership, is very light, most of the members either declining to vote or being indifferent as to the decision of the question.

ROBBERY AND ARRE ST.—A trunk belonging to Mr. H. H. Hemler, of Littlestown, was stolen from the West Branch House at Milton, last week. It was traced to Williamsport, and there found in the office of the Harnden Express Company directed to David Cooper, Troy, N.Y., and the thief was found at the American House, where he had registered his name as David Cooper, of Harrisburg. The receipt for the trunk was found secreted in one of his boots. The thief was, after much difficulty, lodged in jail.—Press.

EMMITTSBURG.—The closing exercises of Mt. St. Mary's College and St. Joseph's Academy, near Emmittsburg, which usually attract many visitors, take place this week—Tuesday, Wednesday and Thursday.

The Festivals by the German Rrformed, Presbyterian, Methodist and Lutheran churches, all passed off successfully and pleasantly.

The Lutheran congregation have contracted with Elias Roth, of New Oxford Pa., to repair and remodel their church. The Presbyterians have also contracted with Messrs. Bowe & Bushman, of Emmittsburg, to repair and remodel their church. The work to be commenced immediately, and finished by the 15th of October.

THE PUBLIC SCHOOLS.—The School Directors of Gettysburg have elected the following Teachers for the ensuing year: —Capt. John F. McCreary teacher of No. 1, Miss Martha Warren of No. 2, Miss Sue M. Myers of No. 3, Miss Emma L. Aughinbaugh of No. 4, Miss Mary J. McCreary of No. 5, Miss Nancy White of No. 6, Miss Alice C. Epwers of No. 7, and Miss Carrie McMillan of No. 8. The Schools will re-open on the 1st of September.

Capt. McCREARY, we understand, has agreed to accept the position tendered him —being the High School, for several years under charge of Mr. WERT, recently elected County Superintendent. The appointment is a capital one, Mr. McCREARY being peculiarly well qualified for the important position, and having had considerable experience as an educator.

For several years the Board has been much embarrassed financially by the increased expenditures of the school system, growing out of the advancing salaries required to secure good teachers, increased cost of fuel, repairs, &c., and a reluctance to increase the School tax as long as the heavy Bounty tax lasted. The tax-payers being now relieved of the Bounty debt, the Board felt itself justified in increasing the school tax, to meet the wants of the system. The tax for the current year, including school and building purposes, will be 13 mills.

COMMENCEMENT EXERCISES.—On Sunday morning last Rev. Dr. VALENTINE delivered the Baccalaureate Address, in Christ Church, to the graduating class of the College, selecting for his theme the "Greatness of Usefulness." We need hardly say that it was a fine production, rich in instructive thought and earnest, practical counsel—brought out in the bold, sharp, original style for which President VALENTINE's productions are distinguished. Dr. V. is making his mark as one of the most promising scholars of the day, and is fully meeting the large expectations of the Board when it called him to the head of the Institution.

At night, the Church was again crowded to hear the address of the Rev. Dr. DURYEA, of Brooklyn, before the Young Men's Christian Association of the College and Seminary. The speaker took for his theme the greatness of Christian Privileges amid the activities of the age. It was an elaborate, able and eloquent effort, and commanded the close attention of the Congregation throughout. Dr. DURYEA is a comparatively young man, of great positive character, aggressive thought, and an unusually effective delivery.

On Monday night the 4th Holman Lecture on the Augsburg Confession was delivered by Rev. Dr. VALENTINE, on Article 4 of the Confession. It was an able discourse, but purely theological, and not adapted for the popular car. It will be published.

This morning the Exercises of the Junior class came off, orations being delivered by the following young gentlemen:

Mystery of Life, J. L. Kendlehart, Gettysburg; Regulus, J. L. Hill, Jr., Gettysburg; Power of Individual Effort, D. W. Cassatt, Hunterstown; Genius, W. H. Bayly, Gettysburg; Lady Jane Grey, E. Manges, Buckstown; Activity of Nature, V. W. Forrer, Pine Grove; Greatness and Goodness, J. T. Gladhill, Frederick, Md.; Major Andre, F. W. Meinffey, Marietta; Pleasures of Memory, J. M. Reimensnyder, Sunbury; Living Words, Thos. J. Stable, Gettysburg; Reputation, M. R. Minnich, Bedford; Patriotism, J. M. Radebaugh, Gettysburg; The Age of Reason, J. L. Kraber, York; God's Secrets, A. G. Fastnacht, Youngsville; Pompeii, J. C. Felty, Hunterstown; What we owe to Priests, Fred. M. Ott, Harrisburg; "Unknown," B. J. Hickman, Bolington, Va.; National Ballads, W. A. List, Wheeling, W. Va.; A Poem—Sea Fountains, J. A. Himes, McAllistaville.

The exercises were, in the whole, very creditable, with varying degrees of excellence in matter, style and elocution.

To-morrow (Wednesday) the commencement proper takes place. We annex the programme of speeches:

Latin Salutatory (in verse), E. T. Horn,* Catasauqua; English Salutatory, F. R. Feltshans,‡ Indiana.; Republicanism in Spain, H. Alleman, Selinsgrove; Repetition and Analogy in History, A. The Directors of the Theological Seminary meet to-day, (Tuesday,) and the Trustees of the College to-morrow. Important business will claim the attention of both Boards. As we go to press in advance of our usual publication day, we must content ourselves with this brief reference to the exercises, leaving details until next week.

AN INTERESTING REMINISCENCE.—At the commencement of the National Deaf Mute College in Washington City, on the 23d, the President E. M. Gallandet gave a history of the College, from which we take this extract:

But during the year 1866, an incident occurred, the effect of which was to secure the very end desired by the officers of the college, and that is the establishment of the college, under independent of any plans or endeavors of theirs. A young man, residing in Gettysburg, Pennsylvania, who had become totally deaf at the age of fifteen, through the establishment of the college, applied to the Hon. Thaddeus Stevens for aid in securing admissio... Mr. Stevens, with his well known ready sympathy for the unfortunate, pro ised the young man his assistance, and addressed the president of the college on the subject. To his surprise he learned that there was no law authorizing the free admission of students to the college save from the District of Columbia and from the army and navy. "What?" said he, with no little indignation in his tone, "have we been appropriating the money of the United States to build and sustain a college for the deaf mutes of the country, into which a deaf mute from my district cannot be admitted?" On being informed that such was the fact of the defective legislation on the subject, he said: "We will very soon remedy this error, and the young man from Gettysburg will be as free to enter your college as he who comes from the District of Columbia." This resolution Mr. Stevens carried into effect, by procuring the passage, on the 2d of March, 1867, of a proviso attached to the appropriation for the support of the institution, that deaf mutes, properly qualified, not exceeding ten in number, should be admitted to the collegiate department of the institution, from any of the States and Territories of the United States, on the same terms and conditions as had been previously prescribed for residents of the District of Columbia.

Thus did the silent appeal of the Gettysburg boy open the door for the higher education of his brothers in misfortune throughout the land. Thus did the veteran "Leader of the House" of the Fortieth Congress, in the midst of the heavy cares of State, which were exhausting his failing strength, find time and vigor enough to secure from the Government of his country a boon for the deaf and dumb, the efficacy of which shall endure, as we trust and believe, till that day of joy and peace when the "lame man shall leap as an hart and the tongue of the dumb shall sing."

While private benevolence has performed an important part in the inception of our college work, to the Congress of the United States belongs the honor of establishing and endowing the institution in a manner worthy of the Government of a great nation.

The "Gettysburg boy" alluded to, is John W. Scott, son of Maj. John Scott, and a graduate of the old "Star" office. A benevolent lady of Gettysburg, who brought to Mr. Stevens' attention the case described, can fairly share the credit of the results which flowed from it.

NARROW ESCAPE.—On Monday evening last Mrs. Valentine Warner and child, David Ziegler, jr., son of Waybright Ziegler, dec'd, aged 12 years, and Perry Gilbert, son of D. Gilbert, aged 10 years, made a very narrow escape. They were returning to town in a one-horse wagon, young Ziegler driving. Coming down the hill on the Mummasburg road, beyond the old gate-house, the shafts got loose, frightening the horse, who broke loose from the vehicle and ran away. Young Ziegler was thrown from the wagon and had his wrist sprained. Young Gilbert was also thrown from the wagon, and in some way got tangled with the reins and was dragged some distance. He was badly cut and gashed about the face and head, and was picked up insensible. Upon being brought to town, Dr. O'Neal was called in and examined the injuries, which proved to be only ugly flesh and scalp wounds. Mrs. Werner and child remained in the wagon and escaped injury.

SCRAP IRON.—$1.50 will be paid in cash for wrought Scrap Iron delivered at Gettysburg Forge. tf

THE MONUMENT.—Work on the National Monument is progressing rapidly as we write, and there is every indication that it will be ready for the dedication services on Thursday. The statues representing History and War have been placed in position, and the visitor begins to get a clear idea of the monument, which will be a handsome, classical and attractive structure. It is to be 65 feet high, and will consist of a massive pedestal twenty-five square at the base, crowned with a colossal statue representing the Genius of Liberty. Standing upon a three-quarters globe she holds in her right hand the victor's wreath of laurel, while with her left hand she clasps the sheathed sword through whose uncovered power the victory was won.

Projecting from the angles of the pedestal are four buttresses supporting an equal number of allegorical statues, representing respectively War, History, Peace and Plenty.

War is personified by a statue of the American soldier, who, resting from the conflict, relates to History the story of the battle, which the monument is intended to commemorate.

History, in a listening attitude, records, with stylus and tablet, the achievements of the field, and the names of the honored dead.

Peace is symbolized by a statue of the American mechanic characterized by appropriate accessories.

Plenty is represented by a female figure, with a sheaf of wheat and fruits of the earth, typifying peace and abundance as the soldier's crowning triumph.

The panels of the main die between the statues are to have inscribed upon them such inscriptions as may hereafter be determined upon. The main die of the pedestal is octagonal in form and panelled upon each face. The cornice and plinth above are also octagonal, and are heavily moulded.—Upon this plinth rests an octagonal moulded base, bearing upon its face, in high relief, the national arms. The upper die and cap are circular in form, the die being encircled by stars equal in number with the States whose sons contributed their lives as the price of the victory at Gettysburg.

The town is rapidly filling up with strangers, who already find difficulty to secure comfortable accommodations. The most ample arrangements, however, have been made by the Committee, through Mr. Wills, the chairman, for Thursday's ceremonies. This afternoon a number of Military companies are expected. In addition to the Railroad arrangements heretofore announced, we are requested to state that on Thursday and Friday, trains will leave Gettysburg, making close connection with trains on the Northern Central, as follows:

For Harrisburg, Columbia and Baltimore at	8:15 A.M.
" York and intermediate points,	12.20 P.M.
" York, Harrisburg and Baltimore,	4.50 P.M.
	8.00 P.M.

A special train will be run from Hanover at 9 A. M., on Thursday, stopping at Valley Station, New Oxford, Granite and Gulden's, for passengers, which will leave Gettysburg, in return, at 4.20 P. M. Passengers from these points will take this special train, as no other train will stop at these intermediate stations. Fare from Hanover and return, 75 cents; from New Oxford, 50 cents; Granite and Gulden's 30 cents.

ELECTION.—At the recent annual election for officers Gov. Geary was elected president of the Gettysburg Battlefield Memorial Association, and the following directors: Henry C. Carey and Edmund A. Sonder, of Philadelphia; Gen. J. Watts De Peyster, of New York; Wm. M. Hersh, of Pittsburg; Hon. O. A. Hoister, of Harrisburg, and N. McAllister, of Bellefonte; J. B. Danner, D. McConaughy, R. G. McCreary, George Arnold, A. D. Buehler, Prof. M. L. Stover and Charles Horner, of Gettysburg. The board was orgnaized by the election of R. G. McCresry as vice president, D. McConaughy as secretary, and George Arnold as treasurer. The resident Directors were appointed the executive committee. The association now owns about one hundred and forty acres of the Battle-field, including Cemetery Hill east of the Turnpike, Culp's Hill, Granite Spur, Round Top, and Reynolds' Grove. The purchase monies have been all paid. The Board contemplate indicating the field with granite guide posts.—Their plan also embraces the erection of historic structures to commemorate the doings of the several army Corps engaged, and the more salient events of the Battle.

RECEPTION.—The Omaha (Nebraska) Herald of the 18th ult., has a handsome notice of the reception of the Right Reverend Robert H. Clarkson, in that city, as the resident incumbent of the Episcopacy of Nebraska, and his installation in the new Episcopal "palace." Bishop Clarkson is a Gettysburg boy—son of Col. Michael C. Clarkson, and nephew of the senior editor of this paper—was born in Gettysburg, graduated at Pennsylvania College, and subsequently entered the Ministry of the Episcopal Church. Although yet a young man, he has risen to the important position of a Bishop. There was quite a gathering of the elite of Omaha at the reception. The Herald says "the residence of the Bishop is itself a model of elegance and convenience, with its airy apartments and fine corridors, and in every way suitable for a gathering of fair women and brave men. The bishop was never in better humor and did the honors of the occasion with a quiet courtesy and grace which we commend. The facade of the residence was brilliantly illuminated, the light throwing a halo over the fronting parterre, which, falling upon the fresh grass and full foliage of the trees, had a charming effect. The band of the Second Cavalry from the barracks was stationed in a grove and played delicious music at intervals until a late hour."

THIEVING.—On Friday night last, the residences of Hon. Moses McClean, D. A. Buehler, and Daniel Gilbert, on Baltimore street, were entered by burglars, who helped themselves to such silver ware as they could find. The thieves were somewhat fastidious, rejecting every thing but the genuine article—fragments of broken plated spoons being left behind, showing that the rascals had tasted them.

The idea of burglars visiting a "Printer's" residence, in expectation of getting anything worth taking is decidedly refreshing. To save those gentry in future the trouble of prizing open our windows, and rummaging through closets and drawers we may as well advertise the fact that the gentlemen who did us the ho nor of a visit on Friday night carried off what little silver ware we had, and there is consequently no more on hand. No doubt the rascals thought a "Printer" had no business with such articles. Probably they were right.

IMPROVEMENTS.—In addition to the improvements heretofore mentioned as in progress throughout the county, we note the following:

Jeremiah Shriver, of Straban township, is erecting a fine two-story brick dwelling and back building on the State road; and Samuel Hartzell a two-story brick dwelling on the Mummasburg road.

Jonas Rebert and Isaac Miller have nearly finished commodius and handsome barns on their respective farms, in Straban township.

Daniel Heintzelman is building a very large barn at the upper end of Cashtown.

John Kochenour, near Bragtown, is erecting a barn 110 feet long, and Michael Bergert another of somewhat smaller dimensions in the same neighborhood.

Michael Bohn, Jacob Resser and George Spangler have put up new barns in East Berlin. George Jacobs has enlarged his barn, in the same place.

Mr. Shulley is building a large barn near Fairfield. George Worts has put up a two-story dwelling house a short distance this side of Fairfield.

Mr. Amos Eckert, we understand, intends to open a Grocery Store in Jesse Walter's new building, on York street.

OPERATIC TROUPE.—The New York Star Combination Burlesque and Operatic Troupe propose to exhibit in Agricultural Hall no Wednesday, Thursday and Friday evenings of this week. The Company is represented as possessing more than usual ability. Among them is Miss Viola Clifton a distinguished sensation vocalist, and Miss Louisa Boshell, the celebrated aerial slack wire performer. Our theatre going people will have an opportunity of indulging their tastes without the expense of a trip to the city. See adv. 4 It

THE GALAXY.—The July number of this popular and attractive magazine contains continuations of Charles Read's novel, Put Yourself in his Place, with an illustration, and Mrs. Edwards' Susan Fielding, with articles on Our Impending Chinese Problem, by Raphael Pumpelly —J. S. C. Abbott's on The Throne of Louis Philippe—A Light Man by Henry James, Jr.,—Our Great Farmers—The Practical View of Spider's Silk—The Last Chapter in the History of the War—A Plea for Jack Cade, by Grant White, and the Galaxy Miscellany—Drift Wood—Literature and Art, and Editorial Nebulæ, making a very lively, animated number of this live magazine which is always fresh, vigorous and adapted to the moods and tenses of the people. The publishers, Messrs. Sheldon and Co., New York, are one of the foremost book houses of the country, and no pains or expense are spared to make the Galaxy, what it is, one of the very best magazines of the day.

NEWSPAPER LAWS.—Post masters are required to give notice by letter when a subscriber does not take his paper from the office, and give a reason for its not being taken. Neglecting to do so makes the postmaster responsible to the publishers for the payment. Any person who takes a paper regularly from the post office, whether he has subscribed or not is responsible for the subscription. A person ordering his paper to be discontinued must pay all arrearages, or the publisher may continue to send it until payment is made, and collect the whole amount whether it is taken out of the office or not. The courts have decided that refusing to take newspapers and periodicals from the post office, or removing and leaving them uncalled for, is prima facie evidence of intentional fraud.

IMPROVED MORNING GLORY.—The famous Morning Glory Stove, so popular as a parlor and office stove, has sometimes been objected to for use in chambers and by families needing but one fire, but not adapted to heat water, &c. This difficulty has been overcome, and last Monday we saw one of the improved Morning Glories in operation at the Warehouse of Col. C. H. BUEHLER, on Carlisle street, which seems not only to obviate objections but to meet every desired want. It is nothing more or less than the ordinary Morning Glory, with an Oven about 15 inches in diameter attached, and ingeniously arranged dampers by which the heat can be thrown around the oven at pleasure, and making it as hot as the ovens of the best cooking stoves. Water can be boiled, pies baked, and even meat roasted as readily as in a cooking stove. This contrivance, while preserving all the qualities of the Morning Glory as a heater, adapts it for the sick chamber, or use in small families requiring but little cooking. tf

THE SARSAPARILLA DIGGERS OF YUCATAN.—This singular set of people are descended from the ancient Aztecs, of Southern Mexico, and still retain some of the peculiarities which Stephens and Prescott gave of their ancestors. Dr. J. C. Ayer & Co., employ a small army of them in digging sar-aparilla root. Provided with narrow spades, a coil of rope, and a bag of water, they are ready for the forest where the wild banana furnishes them food, and thick-leaved trees their only shelter. Few of those who find themselves rejuvenated by this product, know how much they are indebted to the toil of these humble laborers, who dig health for thousands of Dr. Ayer's patrons, while they sometimes lose their own.—Boston Commercial. It.

Young Gents wanting a Fashionable Suit made in the latest style and good material, can save 25 per cent by getting it at Norris' store Arnold's old corner. tf

AN INSTITUTION.—Oak Hall has become one of the "institutions" of the City of Brotherly Love. Many people have been or pretended to be concerned for the permanency of the establishment from its very beginning; but every year it has grown in size, in efficacy and in the favor of the people, until now after ten years experience it stands head and shoulders above anything of the kind in the State if not in the whole country; and all lovers of good clothes are glad to have such an institution to which they can resort. tf

LATER.—We are informed that another new stock has been received by Mr. F. DUPHORN. He is selling so cheap, that no one should come to town without buying something at his store. Take your wool to him and exchange it for goods that you need. You get them just as cheap as for cash. Store North-west corner of Square. tf

THE BEST.—Tonics have of late years gained rapidly in public estimation, and are far more generally employed by first-class physicians than they once were. The reason for this is that it is a generally established fact that wholesome tonics used in moderation daily for years do not loose their virtue, neither do they injure the system.—They act in fact like air and exercise, and not as "medicines," which are intended solely for attacks of illness. The BITTER PRINCIPLES, especially those of vegetable origin, all possess the common property of stimulating the appetite, strengthening the nervous system, and of imparting strength. Women generally derive benefit from them even more than men, their system being more liable to debility and exhaustion.—We have again and again in our experience seen the good effects of tonics where the eyes had grown dim and the cheeks pale, and the entire frame showed every indication of exhaustion, nervous suffering and debility.

The best established bitters before the American public are beyond question those of Dr. Stover, and this is equivalent to declaring that they are the best, since among the scores of really excellent bitters now current, a poor article has no chance of success whatever. The most ignorant person can tell at once by its effects, almost from a single dose, whether any bitters are good or bad. These of Stover have been sold for thirty years, are composed of sixteen of the safest roots and herbs of a well-known tonic virtue, so skillfully selected and compounded with regard to their mutual effects, that it may be doubted whether any more perfect form of this medicine can be made.

Thousands of persons are exposed to or affl

HORSES FOR FARM WORK.

Among the different breeds of horses now propagated in this country, every class of business can select that which is best calculated to perform the services required by its owner. The gentleman of leisure and the Medical Profession require a horse, not too large, but of good blood, mind and speed. The farmer requires a horse of greater weight with all the above named, except speed—extra speed. If a farmer's horse can trot six miles an hour to a light wagon, without extra effort, he is fast enough.

At heavy draft, weight adds strength without any extra effort of the muscles—so that the heavy horse before a plough moves on with ease by virtue of his own weight against the collar, while the lighter horse must strain every nerve and muscle to do the same work. This excites, irritates, and worries him and he is not so attentive to the word or line. This over exertion soon begins to tell upon him and his value is depreciated. The same remarks will apply in drawing a loaded wagon up grade.

It must then be the interest of farmers in breeding horses for their own use, to select such animals to breed from as will produce the desired result. Here the Percheron, more familiarly known as Norman, is a candidate for the farmer's favor, and deserves to be better known and more fully appreciated. The Percheron horse, no doubt, at this day, stands first among the draft breeds of the world. The interest in this breed has greatly increased of late among farmers, and they are the best judges of their own wants.

The Conestoga horse has weight, but is very deficient in action—sluggish in his movements, and not celebrated for bottom or endurance. This breed of horses is principally confined to one locality, (Lancaster co., Pa.)

At the prices for which good horses sell, a fine opportunity is offered to large farmers to raise horses of popular breeds for sale. Even small farmers raise one or two a year with good profit. —Stock Journal's.

THE ENGLISH HOUSE SPARROW.

The English house sparrow is a hardy, greedy little bird, but with a spiritual appetite withal. He builds his nest under the tiles, in holes, in walls, in trees that grow in streets, gardens and yards, in ivy, Virginia creepers, and other plants that climb up walls. These sparrows increase rapidly. A colony of a dozen couples will soon fill a city. They will eat full grown, tough, shaggy caterpillars when hard pressed, as a lion will eat a gross, vulgar man when hungry, if no sucklings or sick falls in his way. They are, however, delicate in their tastes. They prefer caterpillars' eggs or the little tenderling just bursting out of the egg, a soft, sweet, unctuous nibful which makes them chirrup with genuine birdie gratitude. In Jersey City, N. J., a few of these sparrows were colonized about three years ago. Previous to their arrival the trees were full of slimy, creeping, stingy things—the terror of ladies, and the disgust of men. These creatures made the trees leafless. They fell upon the dresses of ladies, and on the necks of men, and into the mouths of children as they rode past. The ladies' dresses were stained and smeared by mashed grubs, so that they feared to venture into the streets, and sometimes dared not go to church. Their very bonnets, fluttering all over with flowers and laces, are the nestling places for creeping things. All is now changed. The sparrows have done it all. The trees are all life and beauty. Leaves are no longer perforated; clusters of slimy, hairy abominations no longer hang in ropes from the branches. Gentlemen wear new hats without fear. Ladies wear silks and satins with pleasant confidence, and trip along smilingly, thanks to the feathery strangers.—Western Rural.

FACTS IN FRUIT CULTURE.

Doctor Trimble, of Newark, New Jersey, who has paid great attention to fruit culture, gives the following as his views—the result of many years' experience:

1. That the most successful way to conquer the curculio is to gather the fruit as it falls, and feed it to stock, or destroy it, as it is by this falling fruit that the curculio propagates its species.

2. That the fruit of the apple tree can be protected from the apple tree moth by wrapping around each tree two or three times a rope made of straw. The moths will harbor in this rope and can then be destroyed.

3. That the only way to kill the peach tree borer, is to cut him out with a knife, not once only in a season, but to follow him up every two weeks until exterminated.

After the first "going over" of an orchard this will be little or no trouble, as each tree can be attended to in two minutes.

THE Ripley Bee says that a cow belonging to a Mr. Kendall, near Decatur, Brown county, recently gave birth to one hundred and six calves in one calving, and that his other cow, belonging to Mr. Edward Francis, in the same vicinity, about the same time, brought forth sixty. In each instance there was one large developed calf, while the others were about the size of large Norway rats. The smaller ones were perfect miniature calves in every respect. Both of the cows died. The Bee says there is no doubt of the truth of this statement.

PREPARATION OF BONES FOR USE AS MANURE.—As some members were anxious to obtain directions for the preparation of dissolved bones, he considered that it would be useful to give some advice on the subject. He would recommend the farmers to adopt the following plan: Place in a wooden trough, or tub, the bones, broken into as small pieces as possible, and pour upon them one-third of their weight of boiling water, and, having steamed the mass so as to render the bones completely moist, add one-third of the weight of the bones of sulphuric acid and common vitriol of the bleacher, and mix the materials completely, by stirring them, by means of a wooden shovel or old spade. The mixture may be conveniently made in an old sugar hogshead, and should be allowed to remain some weeks previous to being used. It may be mixed, if necessary, with dry peat mould, or real charcoal, or with sawdust; but lime should not be added to it. By careful attention to these directions, the farmer will obtain a compound of high fertilizing power, and much superior to most of the artificial manures sold in the market. The addition of slaughter-house and soapboilers' refuse, which some farmers occasionally use, should be avoided. By employing the bones as described, the manure will be found to contain a large amount of soluble phosphate, which very few of the advertised manures afford.—Dr. J. P. Miller, at meeting of Ag. Soc. of Essex.

TO all agriculturists, therefore, who are in search of an active and permanent manure, and who may have not as yet decided on this article presented to their notice for the first time, the manufacturers would suggest, that the is worthy of their experimental trial, at last; past experience warranting the fullest confidence, that after a trial they will add their testimony to that of hundreds of farmers who now regard it as the cheapest and best manure in the market.

A Word to the Wise!

HIGHLY IMPORTANT TO FARMERS!

Renner's Chemical Fertilizer!

THE importance of a quick, active and durable Fertilizer, adapted to the soil of our county, is acknowledged by all Farmers. Having satisfied himself, by close study and careful experiment, that F. C. RENNER'S surpasses all others in adaptedness to all kinds of soil, I have purchased the right for Adams county, and am prepared to fill orders for it promptly and on reasonable terms. It is no humbug, but

Chemical Fertilizer

HAS BEEN SUCCESSFULLY TRIED

by a number of our Farmers, and is admitted by all who have it to be the best in the market, and the cheapest. I am prepared to furnish this Fertilizer in any quantity, and will deliver

In any town or village in the County, when ordered in not less quantity than a TON. I manufacture it for sale at $40 per ton without bags, or $55 in bags. This fertilizer is composed of the best fertilizing materials that can be had. I use no oil of vitriol; it does not contain any ammonia, therefore I do not use it. Neither do I use lime nor ashes.

THE OBJECT OF THE CHEMICAL FERTILIZER

is to introduce a fertiliser that will last for a series of crops—not only for one. It contains sufficient animal matter to mature the grain and make it ripen early, while the ammonia forces the growth. I expect to manufactures large supply this winter for the spring crops, and therefore invite farmers and the public generally to give it a trial on all kinds of Grains and Vegetables.

CAUTION.—I hereby give notice that Farm Rights hereafter sold, unless signed by me, are infringements on my Right, and will be prosecuted and dealt with according to law, from which there is no appeal.

These instruments have been before the Public for nearly Thirty Years, and upon their excellence alone attained an unparalled pre eminence, which pronounces them unequaled. Their combines great power, sweetness and fine singing quality, as well as great purity of Intonation, and evenness throughout the entire scale. Their is pliant and elastic, and entirely free from the stiffness found in so many Pianos. In they are unexcelled. Using none but the very best seasoned material, the large capital employed in our business enables us to keep continually an immense stock of lumber, &c., on hand.

TOUCH

☞ Our SQUARE PIANOS have our New Improved Overstrung Scale and the AGRAFFE TREBLE. We would call special attention to our improvements in

GRAND PIANOS AND SQUARE GRANDS,

Patented August 14, 1866,

Which bring the Piano nearer perfection than has yet been attained.

Every Piano fully Warranted for Five Years.
